

Job Description: Foreman

Summary/Objective:

The Foreman performs tasks involving overseeing site work and system operations. This includes supervising work performed by laborers or equipment operators, receiving personnel and various other duties as assigned.

Responsibilities:

- Oversees work done on-site in a safe and environmentally sound manner
- Assesses job priorities and makes decisions accordingly
- Communicates with Field Superintendent regarding project progress
- Gives instructions on what tasks need to be done
- Ensures timely completion of projects
- Maintains inventory records and logs of work performed and materials and equipment used and delivered
- Understands rigging and material handling safety requirements
- Understands how SCADA systems operate
- Performs various inspections
- Performs various maintenance tasks
- Understands basic electrical safety requirements
- Understands drawings and staging layouts
- Understands how to use equipment used on site
- Inventories and requests equipment and supplies as needed
- Complies with and enforces company policies and procedures with an emphasis in safety
- Understands and implements lock-out / tag-out procedures

Qualifications:

- High school diploma.
- Minimum of 10 years relevant construction experience.
- Experience leading a construction crew
- Leadership and strong collaboration skills.
- Customer/Client Focus.
- Decision Making.
- Ethical Conduct.
- Problem Solving.
- Project Management.

Eligible to Qualify for Benefits

Schedule:

- Varies from 40 hours/week to 84 hours/week